SIR:

In response to the Requirement for Restriction and Election of Species mailed December 17, 1999, applicants hereby elect group I, with traverse.

The Examiner has not provided evidence that an undue searching burden would be required in order to search all of the claims. Furthermore, the claims of both groups do comply with PCT Rule 13.1 because they do have corresponding special technical features in that the underlying measurements are based on remanent magnetization.

Respectfully submitted,
